Bars

21 Privat Club

Rimska 21, Prague 2
 Phone: 607 755 323
 Daily 4 p.m. til 4 a.m.

Gayguide.net: Comfortable nicely designed cellar bar with relaxing atmosphere. Mostly Czechs. There are tables for about 30-40 people and a small bar. Service is very friendly, only some cold food. 90% of the audience is gay-lesbian. – oops, was hat der Till denn da rausgesucht...

Alcohol Bar

Dušní 6, Prague 1
 Phone: 224 811 744
 Fax: 241 433 074
 Metro: Line B (Náměstí republiky)
 Tram: 05, 08, 14 (Stop: Dlouhá třída)

Bar Bar

Všehrdova 17, Prague 1
 Phone: 257 312 246
 Metro: Malostranská
 Tram: Újezd
 Prices: 50-200 Kč
 Open: Sun-Thurs 12:00-24:00 Fri 12:00-02:00
 Website: <http://www.bar-bar.cz>

Till: Im Sommer 04 mal kurz mit Nico & David besucht. Sehr gute Drinks – auch der Caipi, der in Prag selten so ist wie in München (hier ist er so).

Prague.tv: A comfortable and cozy restaurant in the centre on Malá Strana, offering international and domestic food, large selection of drinks, cocktails, and excellent 100% Arabica coffee. Other services, such as catering, are also available. Catch full moon parties, vernisages, and more.

Bond's Cocktail Bar

Polská 7, Prague 2

AKA: James Bond Café

Map: view map

Phone: 222 733 871

Metro: Jiřího z Poděbrad (line A)

Tram: Vinohradská tržnice

Prices: 35-200 Kč

Open: Mon-Sat 17.00-02.00, Sun 17.00-24.00

Website: <http://www.jamesbondcafe.cz>

Till, 27.11.04: checked out the place on Saturday evening: It's a really nice place! The location really looks like on the pics. But one would expect that 23:00 on a Sat evening is a bars prime time – so having half of the tables empty is a bad sign. And it kills the atmosphere. Probably one should go there with a big group of people and just bring the atmosphere along ☺.

prague.tv: The popular James Bond Café in Vinohrady has changed its face and its name and is now fully focused on nightlife. The interior now includes gold bar fittings, seating with a built-in aquarium and pop-art wall decorations, creating a perfect cocktail bar atmosphere. There are many colorful new cocktails and special drinks on the menu, four kinds of beer on tap, a completely new action-themed food menu and many other regular items, including excellent Musetti coffee. There's also a newly installed projection TV screen. With good music, chic staff and a great atmosphere there are so many reasons to come and try it out!

Private parties and company banquets are also possible.

Barock

Parizska 24, Prague,
8.30am - 1am
Telephone: (00 42 02) 232 9221

World's Best Bars: The name might suggest a heavy metal hangout but it's Prague's elite who cram in here for succulent sushi and the coolest cocktails. A large, stylish space with a slick steel bar, cut-glass chandeliers and floor-to-ceiling windows, the walls are dotted with moody pics of pouting Czech models and that beauty next to you with the Whiskey Sour might well be one of them. Owned by Tommy Sjoo and Nils Jebens who run the trendy Kampa Park restaurant on the river. But did they mean Baroque?

Bugsy's Bar

Pařížská 10, Prague 1
Phone: 222 329 943
Fax: 222 250 620
Metro: Staromestke Namesti (line A)
Website: <http://www.bugsysbar.com/english/main.html>

Till: Mit Nicola Pascher, David Born im Sommer 04 dort gewesen: Sehr chic, bissi aufreissen, kühl. Tendenz langweilig.

Café Café

Rytirska 10
Prague 1
Tel: +420 2 2421 0597
Web:

Till, 31.11.04: Very nice café, nice people. A bit expensive for Prague standard.

Expats.cz: Much more than coffee and liquor, fashion TV, funky and free. If you are in Prague and you want to rub shoulders with the hip and the chic, the cool and the proud, you can't do better than to mix with this crowd.

Celebrity cafe

Vinohradská 40, Prague 2
Phone: 222 511 343

Till, Nov 2004: Passed by by chance. Looks like a small and rather boring place – from outside...

Cheers

Address : Praha 2, Belgická 116
Tel : 222 51 31 08
Open daily :11:00-01:00

In your pocket: The beer-drinking ethos that Cheers wants to epitomise with its unaffiliated-to-any-brewery full range of beers is marred by the bright lights, pumping club tunes and Fashion TV on the tube. Overpriced and uninspiring food doesn't add to the sterile atmosphere. Maybe it'll chill out and have some fun later.

From Dusk Till Dawn

Týnská 19, Prague 1
AKA: Od Soumraku do Usvitu
Phone: 224 808 250
Metro: Náměstí Republiky (line B)
Tram: 5, 8, 14, 51, 54 (Stop: Náměstí Republiky)

prague.tv: The sun has finally set for good at Dusk Till Dawn. Stop by and check out the newly opened Týnská Bar and Books.

Grand Cafe Orient

Dum U Cerne Matky Bozi
Ovocný trh 19
110 00 Praha 1

Tel +420 224 224 240

Till, August 2005: Sehr schönes, kubistisches Café in der Altstadt, nahe Pulverturm/Na Prikope. Frisch restauriert, interessantes Design. Im 1. Stock mit kleinem Balkon.

Hapu

Orlicka 8
Prague 3-Zizkov
Tel. 222 720 158

Prague Post Site (Best bar in town, reader's choice): The people have spoken, and the people are very, very hip. Eschewing the obvious spots in the center, they selected tiny, down-at-the-heels Hapu as the Best place to wet your whistle. What few seats there are fill up quickly, but the well-made drinks make up for any lack of elbow room.

World's Best Bars: Hip new cocktail lounge that's not quite as posey as Buggy's or Barock but getting there. Drinks, expertly prepared by friendly magazine-cover bar staff of both sexes, are served in the laid-back carpet-and-sofa living room. It's happening at Hapu.

Marquis de Sade

Templová 8, Prague 1
Phone: 224 817 505
Metro: (Line B) Náměstí republiky
Tram: 05, 08, 14 (Stop: Náměstí republiky)

Till: Empfehlung von MP. Sehr relaxed, leicht angesifft, Abhängen mit Bier.

Avant-Guide: Dig if you will a picture of a 1990s off-campus college bar with functional tables and cute waitresses and rock 'n roll on the stereo at all times. Beer is cheap, the volume is loud, and it's so well located that you can easily stumble home. Much less debauched than its name would imply, the Marquis De Sade is a good place to order a shot of "t'kill ya" or Prague-brewed Staropramen and hit on fellow expat slackademics. They've often got live music on weekends, and when you get booted at closing time, they'll kindly give you a plastic cup in which to take the rest of your beer.

Papas

Betlémské nám. 8, Prague 1
Phone: 222 222 229

Till: Vossis & Tills erste Stammkneipe in Prag. Leckere Cocktails, gutes Essen (bis spät!), clean.

Café Pavlina

Slovanský dum
Na Prikope 22
110 00 Praha 1
Tel +420 737 222 244
www.cafepavlina.cz

Till, Sept 2005: Schönes Café im Hinterhof des Slovensky dum. Mit Nadine entdeckt und als „da müssen wir uns mal treffen“ klassifiziert.

Solidni Nejstota

Pštrossova 21
110 00, Prague 1
Phone: +420 - 224 933 086
<http://www.solidninejistota.cz>

Till, Mai 05: Sehr nette Bar. Hat auch kleine Tanzfläche, trotzdem genug Platz zum Sitzen & Stehen. Man kann auch reden... Sehr sympatisch ist der große Tresen.

Holzhofstr. 6 • 81667 München • Deutschland • Čermakovà 7 • 12000 Praha • Czech Republic
Mobil +49-172-86 49 447 • Email till.gartner@gmx.net

Oft genommen in der Kombi Essen im Dynamo, Drinks und vielleicht bisserl Wackeln im Solidni.

Yahoo! Travel: This large, airy space is currently the spot for singles cruising singles and loud, dumb fun (not necessarily the same thing). The crowd is predominantly Czech and under thirty but expats and tourists are by no means unrepresented. The food of choice is not unexpectedly of the liquid variety but there is a menu offering tasty meat dishes off the grill, most costing between 95-140 Kc. The small dance floor suffers needlessly every time the DJ spins tracks from Grease.

Thirsty Dog

Elišky Krásnohorské 5
Metro: Staromestska (line A)
tel. 231 0039
Open: Mo-So 12-02

Motylek.com: A shrine to the golden days of expat slacking whose long-closed original location at Obecni dum was once immortalised by Nick Cave, who apparently felt very sorry there. Nowadays its burgers, Murphys Stout and Lobkowitz, jubilant disporting by Yanks and a handful of Czechs, and summer breezes in the little patio out back.

Pragueexperience.com: The Thirsty Dog in Prague has transformed itself into the First & Last Bar. With hearty all day breakfasts and daily late night opening until 2am, the First & Last name certainly fits. For those staying in this area of town, First & Last is also a friendly little bar to start the evening off in. Then, when you've drunk and danced your will in the clubs of Prague, somewhere to pop in for that very last night cap. That's not to say it's not worth staying for a few hours either. There's table football, pinball and plenty of cool tunes to keep the crowd entertained. The beer is also reasonable Prague prices. There's a decent pub grub menu as well, serving up well prepared pizza, pasta, Czech-Mex, fish & chips, curry and even a delicious Sunday roast.

A few TV screens dotted around the bar show the English Premiership, Champions League and major tournaments.

This old face on the Prague nightlife scene has had a makeover, and all in all, the First & Last bar is certainly worth a visit. If you are in Prague for a long weekend, and you are in the area, it's a friendly bar to call your "local" for a few days.

Tretter's

V Kolkovne 3
Prague 1-Old Town
Tel. 224 811 165

Prague Post Site (Best bar Editor's choice): Michael Tretter has been mixing great drinks for years now, and his stylish Old Town bar is a regular showcase for beautiful people out on the town. We like it anyway -- partly for the stargazing, partly for the excellent mind-erasers.

World's Best Bars: Set in the heart of the Old Town, Tretter's is a cocktail connoisseurs heaven: up to 200 concoctions available from 150 classics to 50 new creations, many the work of the bar's owner and globe trotting master mixologist Michael Tretter. An elegant old style interior with red upholstery, classy tables and a beautiful, long dark-wood counter, all the drinks taste good but try the bourbon, lime juice and grenadine special called the New Yorker and see if it transports you to Manhattan. The ultra potent Zido, a fruity mix of Cachaca, white rum, coconut syrup, lime and papaya juice is another winner, though you may not be standing afterwards. Four charming bar staff, one with an orchid behind his ear, take such care with their creations you almost don't want to drink them. Those interested might even want to enlist in one of Tretter's mixology teach-ins. Regulars are a sexy crowd of fashion, film and business types, here for great drinks, great décor and high-octane flirting. Join them.

Avant-Guide: Michael Tretter (Ocean Drive), one of Prague's premier mixologists opened this cocktailian temple to showcase the considerable skills of his suspender-wearing, bottle-spinning bartenders. Indeed, the bar itself has pride of place here, occupying about half of the entire space. From the sophisticated lettering on curtained windows, to the dark wood furnishings, this place looks like a cocktail bar is supposed to look. And Tretter's is as good a spot to take a date as it is to find one.

Zanzibar

Cocktails with supermodels
Lazaenska, 6 Prague 1 110 00
T: +420 2 689 75 84

World's Best Bars: Attractive staff once again translate as sulky service, but at least the hip and friendly young crowd who come in here are not still waiting to be discovered. The drawcard is a well-stocked bar and a cocktail list that's longer than an Indian Ocean island, with many martini and margarita variations to go with your favourite Black Bush shot. Decor is more Malibu-pink and Vegas-neon than Zanzibar though.

Avant-Guide: On a tiny street just steps from Charles Bridge, this colorful cocktail bar is the perfect place for an after-dinner drink or three. They've got the best-stocked bar in Malá Strana and, while you probably wouldn't choose the orange and blue color scheme for your own living room, it works well with the centerpiece wooden bar, plank floors, schoolhouse furnishings and sconce lighting. Most of the action is in the front room, where thirty customers is a full house.

Food

Allegro

Veleslavinova 2a
(inside the Four Seasons Hotel)
Prague 1-Old Town
Tel. +420 - 221 427 000

Prague Post, Best Of Prague, Reader's choice: This is one of those times when the voters are just plain right: Allegro is head and shoulders above its competition, thanks to chef Vito Mollica's fantastic Italian and European cookery, as well as an absolutely faultless service staff.

Ariana

Ramova 6
Stare Mesto
Afghan restaurant.

Aromi

Mánesova 78/442
120 00 Praha 2 - Vinohrady
Czech Republic

Till, November 2005 Nadine & ich sind dort beim OpenBC-Treffen gewesen: War sehr nett & gut. Service und Essen sind toll. Für allzu große Gesellschaften wahrscheinlich nur nach Vorreservierung geeignet. Ein echter Italiener – wie man ihn auch in München finden würde ☺

Bazaar Mediterranee

Nerudova 40, Prague,
12pm - 12am
Telephone: + 42 025 752 5050

Till: Geburtstagsparty Fritz im Sept 04: Sehr schönes Ambiente, insb. Terasse. Sehr gutes Essen. Für Prag teuer.

World's Best Bars: Modish city venue combining cafe and restaurant with rooftop garden bar. Med food is eaten in the Gothic brick-lined cellar below (to the tune of a tinkling pianist), whilst hired dancers perform to club music on a raised stage one floor up. But the rooftop, with its view of the castle, is the place to see and be-seen. Booking essential.

Po-Ne 7:00-21:00

Dynamo

Pstrossova 29
Prague 1
Tel: +420 - 224 932 020

Till, März 05: Eines der Lieblingsrestaurants von Nadine & Till um mit Freunden unserer Generation Essen zu gehen. Sehr gutes Essen, sehr netter Service. Vorsicht mit den Tschechischen und Slovakischen Weinen...

Infohub TravelGuide: Prices: 350–500 Kc. Continental / International A hip, modernist diner great for people-watching. Recommended: liver and onions, marinated tongue in black sauce, single-malt scotches. (behind the National Theater). Open Mon.–Fri. 10:30 a.m.–midnight. AmEx, DC, Euro/MC, Visa. Stravenky.

Prague Accomodations: This restaurant won an interior design a few years back and the food is good and reasonably priced. They also stock about 100 kinds of whiskey, mostly single malts, for the whiskey drinker.

Garden in the Opera

Legerova 75
Prague 1-New Town
Tel. 224 239 685

Prague Post, Best Of Prgaue, Editor's choice. As a backup to Allegro, we send readers to this ethereal establishment for the atmosphere alone. But the food is also recommendable, especially the unique regional menus prepared by visiting chefs.

GaUCHO Steak House

El Gaucho Steak House
Wenceslas Square 11
New Town, Prague 1

Credit Cards accepted Visa, MC, Amex
Opening Times 11:30-24:0

<http://www.el-gaicho.cz/>

Till, Okt 05: Dort mit Vossi & Ansgar zu Abend gegessen. Essen sehr gut (Fleisch & Wein!), Stimmung etwas öde...

Stepan Bechynsky: "The best meat in town"

PragueExperience: For the best steak in town, look no further than Prague's El Gaucho Steak House Restaurant, set right in the centre of Wenceslas Square.

El Gaucho has a mouth watering assortment of beef, including rib eye, top sirloin, tenderloin, fillet, T-bone steak and the house speciality, the huge El Gaucho. Steaks are expertly prepared on a "Parilla" - an authentic Argentinean grill - in the famous "Asado" style.

If steak is not your thing, there's plenty of other dishes to choose from, including chicken, grilled fish and fresh salads.

Many of the dishes are typically Argentinean, prepared with authentic spices. The meat is also cut in a different way to European steaks, which makes the taste of the food noticeably different to other restaurants. Highly enjoyable.

El Gaucho is a friendly, relaxed restaurant and will appeal to everyone. Staff wear traditional "Gaucho" costumes and soft South American music pervades the restaurant. This is still Prague, but only just.

There is live Argentinean music every evening from 8pm. Buen Appetito!

Hergetova Cihelna

Cihelná 2b

Praha 1, Malá Strana

Tel. +420-296 826 103

<http://www.kampagroup.com/en/>

Till, Sept 04: Mit Lore dort gegessen. Essen sehr gut, sehr nette, hübsche und aufmerksame Bedienung. Stylish, eher modern aber trotzdem sehr freundlich (nicht unterkühlt). Für Prag recht teuer...

Joe Café

Palace Koruna, Václavské náměstí 1

Prague 1, Nové Město

Tel: +420-221 111 721

Till: Eine von Vossis & Tills Stammkneipen auf dem nächtlichen Nachhauseweg: Stylish, gute Mukke, oft hübsche Mädchen – und wenn sie nicht an den Tischen sitzen, dann laufen sie im Fernseher (Fashion-TV). Gutes Essen, auch bis spät in der Nacht. Für CZ-Verhältnisse recht teuer.

Kampa Park

Na Kampe 8b
Mala Strana
Prague 1
Tel +420-257 532 685
<http://www.kampagroup.com/en/>

Till, Winter 04/05: Had dinner there with Jon Oliver, Birgit Kratzsch, Hamarz & Daniel. Great food, perfect service – the best I have seen in Prague so far. And the most expensive...

??: Maintaining the benchmark of fine dining, Kampa Park offers an ambience suitable for every occasion. With its picturesque riverside terrace, intimate winter garden and jovial main dining room, the Scandinavian run gourmet getaway is a feast for the eyes as much as for the palate.

Apartmentsprague: Kampa Park, is situated in a beautiful location right on the banks of the Vltava river with a view of the Charles Bridge. It is a restaurant famous for its personal, elegant atmosphere in an international style. "A la carte" menu is a real joy for the true gourmets, it offers specialities such as lobsters, oysters, fish delicatessen, veal and other meat hors-d'oeuvres. It offers real culinary art even for those who are very choosy. An informal and friendly atmosphere, shaded lights and shaped metal decorations create a pleasant and romantic environment. A beautiful view of the river makes you spend here an extraordinary romantic evening.

?: Large upmarket yet inexpensive out of the way place in Mala Strana in it's own grounds, with parking, and a summer garden with lava grill and a view of Certovka and Kampa Park.

Orange Moon

Ramova 5
Prague 1

Till, Frühjahr 2005: Treffen mit dem OpenBC-Stammtisch. Sehr nettes, gemütliches Ambiente, Essen sehr gut.

?: Interesting and diverse Thai food including some very hot dishes only for the brave of heart which in some cases could be described as treating your tastebuds to a spectacular display of fireworks! Nice presentation and friendly staff too all adds up to a great experience.

Palfy Palace Restaurant

Valdstejnska 14
Mala Strana, Prague 1
Czech Republic

PragueExperience.com Tucked away in Mala Strana, Palfy Palace Restaurant is one of Prague's best kept secrets.

An evening at Palfy Palace is no ordinary affair. This is truly a restaurant for the big occasion. A fine setting for wedding anniversaries, special birthdays, romantic evenings and even proposals!

Two mighty timber doors guard the entrance to the palace. Step inside and climb the large stone staircase to your right. On the first floor, a beautiful candlelit dining area awaits, with soft classical music filling the restaurant.

Palfy Palace is impressive, but not imposing. Tables are wonderfully dressed with candelabras, fresh cut flowers, and fine bohemian crystal. Large bowls of fruit and plant-filled vases decorate the room, while pictures of numerous composers adorn the walls (the palace also functions as a music conservatoire).

In the summer months, the restaurant extends onto a large terrace, providing a fine outdoor setting for either lunch or dinner.

Palfy Palace offers excellent European cuisine and impeccable service, along with an extensive range of fine wines. A truly palatial experience.

Rybi Trh

Tynsky dvur 5, Prague 1 – Stare Mesto

Apartmentsprague: The Fish Market located in the Tynsky Dvur complex (formerly Ungelt) is a unique culinary surprise, the only of its kind in the Czech Republic. It is a place where the atmosphere of old Prague meets the exceptional dishes prepared of fresh-water fish, sea fish, lobsters and oysters, all boiled, roast and grilled according to recipes from around the world. The fish you choose from the menu are either live or freshly imported and stored on ice.

Website: www.umodrekachnicky.cz/

Till: Im Herbst 2004 mit Antje & Tom besucht. Sehr gutes Essen, extrem netter und guter Service. Sehr zu empfehlen!

msn CityGuide: Die tschechische Spitzenküche hinter diesen dicken Mauern hat schon Ex-Kanzler Kohl und Václav Havel gemundet. So ließen sie sich vielleicht sogar das in Knoblauch marinierte Kaninchen mit Serviettenknödeln oder den Böhmisches Brotkessel schmecken.

Die alten Bilder an den Wänden, die schweren Vorhänge und all der angestaubte Nippes vermitteln einem das Gefühl, man säße bei einem Edeltrödler im Laden. Gemütlich: Jeder Tisch ist mit anderen alten Stühlen und Sesseln möbliert. Mittlerweile haben sie ihre Gasträume auf das Obergeschoss erweitert.

Till, Sept 05 Mit Nadine, Seymour und den Jungs von tradizio dort zu abend gegessen. Wahrscheinlich die schönste Location in Prag – wenn man draußen sitzen kann. Auch Service und Essen sind perfekt, Preise für CZ-Verhältnisse enorm, für MUC-Verhältnisse gehoben.

PragueExperience.com U Zlaté Studně Restaurant is one of Mala Strana's "hidden secrets". As you enter the restaurant, a beautiful, panoramic view unfolds before you of the terracotta rooftops of Mala Strana, and across the river into Prague's Old Town. The restaurant interior is modern, but with all the style of an old, well established eatery. The resident chef, Pavel Sapík, conjures a fine selection of international cuisine and is a winner of several international culinary medals.

An excellent wine list includes a wide choice of Czech and International wines.

Zvonice

Jindriška Tower, Jindriška street, Prague 1

Apartmentsprague: Being the only one in central Europe located inside an original Gothic Tower. It was built on the 7th, 8th and 9th floor of the Jindriška Tower off the Wencelas Square. Extraordinary cuisine and great service, panoramic view of the city thanks to the huge windows around the interior, access to the top of the tower where you can admire the "Hundred Spire's Prague". A perfect place for a romantic dinner in a very special atmosphere.

Clubs

Chateau

Jakubská 2, Prague 1
AKA: Chateau Rouge, L'Enfer Rouge
Phone: 222 316 328
Metro: Náměstí Republiky (line B)
Tram: 5, 8, 14 (stop: Náměstí Republiky)
Website: <http://www.chateau-bar.cz/>

Till: Im Frühjahr 04 mit Misa & Steffen besucht. Sehr nette Stimmung, Expat-Publikum, lange Theke. Im Keller ist das Enfer Rouge – das macht seinem Namen Ehre...

Avant-Guide: More than just a stinky bar with crimson walls, Chateau is an bona fide institution sporting a good sound-system and some of the best lighting in Prague. Tripled in size with the opening of its cellar dance space, the bar is experiencing something of a renaissance. Everyone, it seems, floats through here at some point during the week, making this one of the best late-night scenes in town. It's a colorful fishbowl, containing every skin color and every length of hair -- the unifying feature is a desire to get liquored up and lucky. Skunk smokers roll up early to meet with their "travel agents." Later it's workers from other bars and horny locals dropping lines on random tourists who regularly swim by. Beer is the drink of choice, though the bartenders are just capable enough to mix simple cocktails too. Chateau is best after midnight or 1am.

Frommers: Hidden on a small Old Town back street, this loud and lively New Orleans-esque ground-floor place has twin bars, plank floors, and a good sound system playing contemporary rock. It sells four types of beer on tap and features regular drink specials. It's busy and fun -- if you avoid the headache-inducing concoctions from the frozen drink machine. Open Monday to Thursday noon to 3am; Friday noon to 4pm; Saturday 4pm to 4am; Sunday 4pm to 2am.

Till: Sehr gut! Stammbar von Vossi & Till in 2004. Liegt schön auf dem Heimweg und sehr nette Stimmung, gute Musik, nette Menschen.

Duplex

Václavské nám. 21, Prague 1
Phone: 257 535 050
Metro: Můstek (line A, B)
Tram: 03, 09, 14, 24 (Stop: Václavské náměstí)
Website: <http://www.duplexduplex.cz>

Till: Mit Vossi und seinem Schwager Dietmar und Pavlas Mann Dusam im Herbst 2004 besucht. Wurde eine sehr nette Nacht, auch wenn wir 3 Männer nur sehr zögerlich das Tanzbein schwingten. Die nette Vortänzerin auf der Kiste in der Mitte der Tanzfläche hilft dabei aber sehr.

Avant-Guide: Occupying the top two floors of a landmark building on Wenceslas Square, Duplex is an upscale dining and dancing space that unfortunately never found the upscale crowd it was designed for. That said, hitting the right random night can be abfab so it's definitely worth a look. Most nights you'll find a mix of foreign tourists and out-of-town Czechs, many of whom were wooed in by the hawkers downstairs. If the views inside are disappointing, you can always step onto the terrace and be wowed by the lights for Prague.

Gejzee..R

Vinohradska 40, Praha 2
Open Thu 8:00 pm – 4:00 am, Fr & Sat 9:00 pm-6:00 am

Till, 27.11.04: Stumbled into this place by chance – was it really chance. It turned out to be pretty gayish & lesbian. But the music was great and people had a lot of fun. Even a straight one like me can spend a couple of fun hours dancing their.

Till: Website sieht aus, als ob man das mal besuchen müßte...

Avant-Guide: If you like to party till dawn, or even until noon the next day, you need to know about this spectacular after-hours DJ bar that just gets going at 3am and hits its stride hours later. It's best on weekends, but something's often happening on other nights as well, especially if there was a huge event in the city earlier in the evening. Once past the Russian mafiosi at the door, head downstairs where the sun can't reach amped out revelers in quarterlife crisis who lounge on couches, sip mineral water, and sometimes drop down to the second basement to play table tennis, have sex or even take a nap. And definitely check out the toilets in which little mirrors are strategically mounted -- horizontally -- and empty little Zip-Loc bags litter the floor. Never a cover and no velvet ropes, this is a great place to extend your trip.

Music club Deminka

Škrétova 1a, Prague 2

Phone: 603 272 227

Metro: Muzeum

Tram: Muzeum

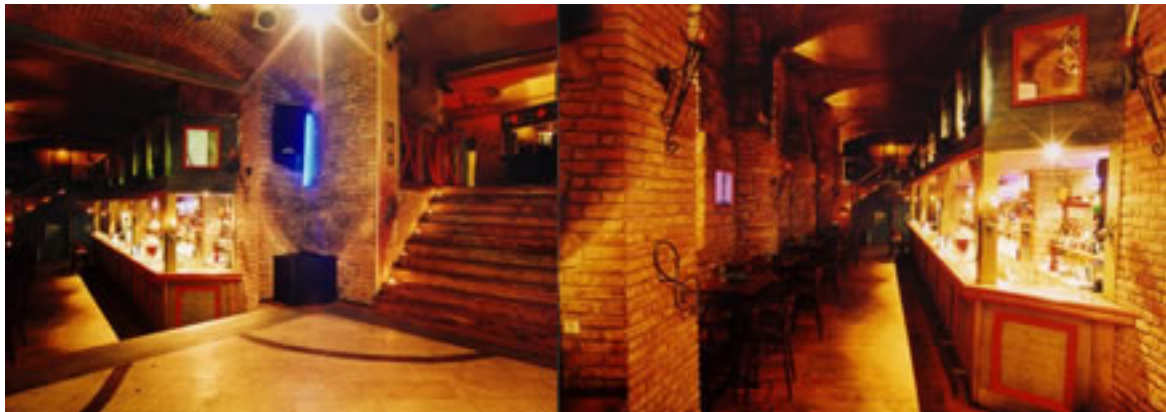

Open: 20:00 - 6:00

Website: <http://www.deminka.com>

Till: Im Herbst 2004 mit Vossi erkundet. Wenn man zur richtigen Zeit kommt (z.B. Sonntag früh um 4) ist der Laden Wahnsinn: Stimmung wie auf einer Privatparty, _nur_ lustige Leute, nette Musik (gut zum Tanzen).

Prague.tv: Over two years ago Deminka opened its doors for everyone seeking to enjoy a wonderful evening and night. The spectacular interior with high-vaulted ceilings, the excellent service and wide range of musical and dance styles quickly catapulted Music Club Deminka onto the Prague scene as one of the places for people to enjoy themselves.

Deminka is often showcased in local magazine photo galleries, and the buzz about its unique atmosphere also attracts Czech celebrities.

Radost

Belehradská 120

Prague 2-Vinohrady

Tel. 224 254 776.

11am - 5am

Prague Post, Best of (Dance Club), Reader's choice: One of the earliest dance clubs in town, Radost FX is still very popular and has been mentioned in trade magazines as one of the leading clubs in the world. The club ventured into techno and house more than a decade ago, before most other clubs were even born. Recently, Radost has been featuring theme nights.

World's Best Bars: Radost is the Czech word for pleasure and an affluent Prague in-crowd come to seek it here. An eclectic mix of nightclub, cocktail bar, art gallery and vegetarian cafe, the decor is lush and rich, the clientele sexy and stylish. An extensive drinks lists is on offer but why not start with a shot of local absinthe? Czechs like seeking Radost, but they like finding it even more.

Prague.tv: In an unassuming apartment building in Vinohrady, a Prague neighbourhood, was a vast open space waiting to take on a shape post Velvet revolution. The original plan in motion was to create a cd shop, gallery and small bistro, but due to financial limitations, the plan could not be fully realised by it's anticipated owners. This was why the current owners of the space, Richard and Bethea Zoli were able to take over. With their experience, ambition, and finance backing, they dreamed up a super complex, now known to the world as Radost FX... History part 2 Because of Richard and Bethea's vast amount of experience in fashion and music (they owned a progressive clothing store in the USA, developed fashion shows, and ran a television show focused on fashion and music) they came up with the idea to open a music night club, which would eventually come to be known as Radost FX.

Since the beginning, Radost has offered the most up to date modern music, always on the cutting edge. And so it became one of the first clubs in Prague and the Czech Republic where one could go to hear (among a few) house, techno, and R n B (seven years ago the likes of Carl Cox and Paul Van Dyk were already spinning their records here). Now the Radost FX complex is home to many theme parties, which are sure to leave a lingering, long lasting impression for anyone who spends a night in one of the most sought after clubs in Prague. History part 3 In 1999, the British club magazine, MINISTRY, voted Radost FX as one of the top 20 clubs in the world. This solidified Radost's position in the world wide music scene. Proof of this was continuous in the numerous international and resident star d.j.'s that have consistently played in the ever changing decor of the club. This renowned club never fell into the trends of the time or the modern tendencies, but followed it's own path, and continued to develop it's own style. This energy and willingness to push forward, has brought Radost FX into it's 10th anniversary, and therefore making it the oldest club in Prague. A living piece of history in Prague's night life.

The Club - A Moulin Rouge style bar offers comfortable seating with a view of the dance floor, and if your looking for privacy, a mirrored golden alcove is optimal for chilling out...the range of comfortable divisions in the night club are expertly contributed to with luscious fabrics and pillows...and, of course, mixed in with it all is the rawness of a true, underground house club.

The Lounge - For a relaxing, chill out dinner, your best bet is the lounge fx. Dim lighting, comfy sofa's and chairs, all in an oriental theme design, contribute to the calming atmosphere. Our bar offers over 390 drinks, and with cool music on top of it all, The lounge fx is sure to relax and indulge your senses. Check out our live lounge dj's on the weekends.

The Restaurant - The Radost FX restaurant is made up of two separate spaces: the cafe fx, and the lounge fx. Before you enter the complex, you can see through the large glass windows, a very romantic and eclectic cafe. Here you can try out our breakfast menu, which runs from 8:30 a.m. to 11:00 a.m.. From 11:00 a.m. on, our delicious, massive, vegetarian menu kicks in, both in the lounge and the cafe. Our wide range menu offers recipes from Greece, India, Thailand, and Mexico, and is served in to the wee hours of the morning. during the weekends, we offer an American style brunch which includes omelettes, scrambles, waffles, and bagels....On Sunday nights, we turn our kitchen into an Italian cucina, and prepare a wide variety of Italian dishes including salads, pizzas, and pastas.

Rockbar

Vinohradská 40, Prague 2

Rock Café

Národní 20, Prague 1
Phone: 224 914 416
Metro: (Line B) Národní třída
Tram: 06, 09, 18, 21, 22, 23 (Stop: Národní třída)
Website: <http://www.rockcafe.cz>

Avant-Guide: Giving a stage to local bands, sometimes served by the half-dozen, Rock Café drops you in the trenches of the city's garage rock scene. A&R types will dig this serious möterhead crowd, one that's often tattooed and pierced and smeared in Ozzy eye-liner. Something's happening here most every night of the week. It's situated adjacent to Reduta Jazz Club.

Roxy

Dlouha 33
Prague 1-Old Town
Tel. 224 826 296.
Metro: Náměstí Republiky (line B)
Tram: 5, 8, 14, 51, 54 (stop: Dlouhá třída)
Open: 19:00 - 06:00 Fri to Sun; 19:00 - 00:00 Mon to Thu
Website: <http://www.roxy.cz/>

Prague Post, Best of (Dance Club), Editor's choice: With a blend of live acts and DJs, plus a huge space to accommodate almost any kind of show, Roxy has a lot of character to go with its lived-in look. It's a bit more downscale than some of the competition, but a real find for those who aren't slaves to the most recent trend in club fashions.

Holzofstr. 6 • 81667 München • Deutschland • Čermaková 7 • 12000 Praha • Czech Republic
Mobil +49-172-86 49 447 • Email till.gartner@gmx.net

Avant-Guide: To know this gutted underground art deco theater is to love it: authentic dissidence has made this place special for over a decade, and it continues to be one of the best clubs in town. Funk and techno DJs are often preceded by live theater or musical performances that run the gamut from frightening to fantastic. Mondays and Fridays are always good. And when a big DJ is in town, or when a special event is going on -- both of which are frequent -- this place becomes the best frolic pad in town. Arrive around midnight.
